BookBaby, United States, 2016. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. Andrea Harding is a recent college graduate looking forward to attending Duke Law School when her world is turned upside down by the shooting of her father, Nicholas, and uncle, Michael, in a surprising and puzzling attack. They are the only family she has, aside from her paternal grandmother Dorothy, so when her uncle dies from the attack and her father lays comatose in ICU, it falls to Andrea to not only investigate who would want to kill her father and uncle, but also to oversee Harding Industries, the family company. When her father s longtime attorney and one of a handful of family friends, Beth Cowling, rushes to help Andrea long distance, the youngest Harding soon finds herself surrounded by a bevy of intriguing new friends and helpers. First to arrive is Beth s own daughter, Riva, acting as Andrea s attorney after Andrea is violently attacked in her father s home, where she grew up, forcing her to kill both would-be assassins. When Nicholas s on again/off again lover, state prosecutor and gubernatorial hopeful Kerry Marcus, is equally at a loss to name suspects in the Harding family attacks, Riva begins her own investigation into the short list of family friends and colleagues, including Don Marshall, former colleague of Nicholas s at Marshall Pharmaceutical, which Don now runs, and Don s wife Karen. Marshall has a shady past, including an incident at his company that also involved Andrea s father. She also looks closely at Marcus Ricci, father of Andrea s closest high school friend, Jason. After Jason s death from leukemia, Ricci becomes like a second father to Andrea. Ricci is also widely believed to have ties to the...
