Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from The Sunday School Anniversary It is surely a very wise step for every school to consider well in advance what is the real object in holding the Anniversary, as well as to discuss the general plan that will best achieve that object. It needs no arguing that if we aim at everything in general we shall hit nothing in particular; therefore a clear-cut aim is necessary. Too often one looks through anniversary programmes in vain for any indication that this annual celebration will be of any real permanent value. Too often the idea seems to be merely to have a good time, or to get a record collection, and nothing more. Yet, if the anniversary is worth holding at all, it should mark a turning-point in the work of the school and leave a permanent improvement behind it. We suggest that the aim and object of the anniversary is to provide a red-letter day for the children, a time of inspiration and re-dedication for the teachers an occasion for setting the child in the midst of the Church, and an opportunity for bringing parents into close relationship with the School. It may also provide an occasion for thanksgiving on the part of the children for their Sunday School and their Church.
