Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from To the People of Suffolk, of All Parties To you I present a fair account of the expenses of our government at different periods. The first year that Mr. Monroe was President, 1821, there was spent ten millions, seven hundred and twenty-three thousand, four hundred and seventy-nine dollars. The first year that Mr. Adams was President, 1825, was spent eleven millions, four hundred and ninety thousand, four hundred and fifty-nine dollars. The first year General Jackson was President, 1829, was spent twelve millions, six hundred and eighty-seven thousand, two hundred and sixteen dollars. From this you may notice there has been a gradual increase of the expenses as our population and business increased for eight years. Please notice, and for ever remember, what it cost to do our public business, eight years from that time, when all their machinery was in full operation, and under the control of the constructor, Mr. Van Buren, with Mr. Silas Wright, Mr. Buchanan, and Col. Benton, senators, and Mr. Cambrelling, and a kw more, to assist in working these shaving machines; they worked off our money last year; by the report of the Secretary of the Treasury, thirty-five millions, two hundred and eighty-one thousand, three hundred and sixty-one dollars. This is a fine sum for them to spend for us in one year; it is three hundred and eighty-one thousand, three hundred and sixty-one dollars, more than was spent in the three years above mentioned, by the three first named Presidents. Shame to those who did complain so bitterly against Mr. Adams for spending, as they said, too much, and wrongfully, too, while at this time, when more than three...
