Well indeed then might the vaults of Heaven resound with the shout of triumph and of exultation, when the seal of redemption was to be set upon the human race, and the celestial spirit of liberty was to descend upon the earth in the person and companionship of the Son of God. This is no fiction of a poetic imagination, but a sober reality. Man was made a slave by the fall of Adam, and became free by the blood of Christ, and by that alone: Nor was the freedom, for the birth of which, when sung in heavenly strains, the sons of God shouted for joy, a spiritual freedom...
