Penguin Aus., 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 15.6 x 23.4 cm. Acclaimed writer Margo Rabb's Kissing in America is 'a wonderful novel about friendship, love, travel, life, hope, poetry, intelligence, and the inner lives of girls' raves internationally bestselling author Elizabeth Gilbert (Eat, Pray, Love). In the two years since her father died, sixteen-year-old Eva has found comfort in reading romance novels to dull the pain of her loss that's still so present. Then she meets Will, who understands her grief, and her romantic fantasies become a reality. But without warning, Will moves to California. Not wanting to lose the only person who has been able to pull her out of sadness, Eva and her best friend decide to drive west to find Will again. As they road-trip across America, Eva and Annie encounter cowboys and tiny towns without stoplights. And along the way, they confront the complex truth about love. In this honest and emotional journey that National Book Award finalist Sara Zarr calls 'gorgeous, funny, and joyous' readers will experience the highs of infatuation and the lows of heartache as Eva contends with love in all its forms. Praise for Kissing in America 'Wonderful . . . Margo Rabb has created nothing less than a women's map of American mythologies, navigating from Emily Dickinson to Barbara Cartland, from the cowboys of the rodeos to the makeup studios of Hollywood, and from the bottom of the Atlantic to the spacious skies of the USA.' ? E. Lockhart, New York Times bestselling author of We Were Liars 'A wonderful novel about friendship, love, travel, life, hope, poetry, intelligence and the inner lives of girls. Margo Rabb writes with compassion and clarity about lives that are worth telling, journeys that need to be taken, peace that needs to be reached. I loved it.'...
