Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from The John Crerar Library: Supplement to the List of Serials in Public Libraries of Chicago and Evanston, Corrected to April, 1903 When the List of Serials in Public Libraries of Chicago and Evanston was published by the Chicago Library Club in 1901 the statement was made that The John Crerar Library proposed, if it proved to be of real service, to issue cumulative supplements. The present volume is the first of these supplements. The justification of its publication would seem to be ample because of the proved usefulness of the original not only for the purpose for which it was compiled, in giving a scholar information where a given volume of a serial can be consulted most conveniently, but also, and somewhat unexpectedly, as a convenience in the administration of the libraries. In one library, at least, the original has been referred to constantly as the most convenient source of information in regard to its own sets. If it has been so used in other libraries to anything like the same extent it has been no inconsiderable factor in the improvement of the sets which is noted in this supplement, and the Chicago Library Club may well be congratulated on the success of its undertaking. Another proof may be found in the readiness with which the libraries have furnished material for the supplement. Only one, St. Ignatius College, has not done so. It has been prevented by a change of librarians and the recataloguing of its library, and it hopes to be able to join in the next revision. On the other hand, the Chicago Historical Society, which was unable to furnish material for the...
