An impoverished writer. to the culture of South Korea's first daughter. Selling South Korea 300 000. Cultivate a good boy. do not need tutoring. they do not participate in any cram. Novel point of view. plus of this is the writer. the content funny but yet practical. Executive summary in the case of no tutor or any tutorial can let the children get a good education? From a practical point of view. unfortunately. this is basically impossible. The usual view without exception. that is proportional to the tutoring and academic performance. Attend cram achievements still unhappy. usually due to lack of patience and determination. Thus. although failed. but most people still tutoring effect positive attitude. However. there is a father. did not send their children to cram schools. puts the children to develop excellence. Which is only one reason - money. The family was poor. but his love for the child is not lost in any rich dad. In order to let the kids get a good education as far as possible. he quit drinking. and strive to create a good environment dedicated for children. He can not be like other people to send their...
