New Generation Publishing, United States, 2008. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 198 x 126 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Three housemates - Chloe, Rita and Joan - have just celebrated graduating from Sheffield University. Ahead of them lie possibilities and opportunities - with important decisions to be made. What does the real world have in store for them? The answer: working as land girls. The year is 1942 and the Second World War is well underway. Working on a farm in beautiful Lincolnshire, the girls soon have to learn to overcome both the physical and mental challenges they come up against; all the while trying to get to grips with working on a farm for the first time in their lives. With a little help from new friends they meet along the way, the girls discover that in life it s not the circumstances that count, it s the opportunities that you take.
