There is marked improvement in taste for reading noticeable in many instances. Some pupils who were formerly addicted to dime novels and other sensational reading have voluntarily abandoned that since we are furnishing them something better. A knowledge of history, of current events, of familiar facts in science, and language-culture, are some of the benefits resulting from this work. At San Francisco, Cal., the principals as a unit want supplementary reading-matter. The school committee of Southbridge, Mass., say, Supplementary reading, which has been gradually gaining ground for the past three years, is one of the most advantageous results of the system of free text-books. Its beneficial effects are plainly visible. From Steubenville, O., comes the following: Supplementary readers have now been in use long enough to enable us to judge of the results. These are very satisfactory. The children...
