Not illustrated. 1915 Excerpt: .to the Panama Star and Herald he advanced rapidly ic positions of great importance and responsibility. He was put in charge of placing the spillway gates at thr Miraflores Locks and the precision with which he directed the carrying out of this work evoked special com mendation from high canal officii .; Just prior to his departure for Michi gan his friends and co-workers tender ed him a farewell dinner and in divers ways showed their appreciation of his work and friendship. Captain J. J. Kingman, Engineer s Corp., U. S. Army, inspected the M. A. C. Cadets last Friday morning, keeping them on the run from nine until twelve o clock. The boys testify that it was the most vigorous inspa tion they have ever experienced. Capt Kingman complimented the regimen. on the closed order work, and genera! appearance, but said that the field work could be much improved. This is not to be wondered at considering the earliness-of the inspection and the limited facilities for this kind oi training. The Band came ln for the usual share of praises, the statement being made that there is only one better in the country. That is at Illi nois where they really have three bands, totaling about 200 musicians the best band, being, according to tie Captain, almost the equal of Crea tore s or Sousa s. STATE BOARD MEETING. (Continued from first page.) at M. A. C., the officers and board of control considered every...
