By Ian Hartley

Createspace, United States, 2014. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 279 x 216 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Fashion Industry Broadcast s Masters of Music Series is one of the most extensive and prestigious publishing initiatives ever released on this subject. In this the sixth of our Music Series, and the second on Pop music we present our giant picture book on the careers of the biggest names in Pop. Pop music is not a career for the faint-hearted. Very few make it through to the other side untouched . as was the case, sadly, with one of the most talented, Amy Jade Winehouse, who went on to self-destruct from alcohol poisoning and paparazzi at 27, after only two albums. Surrounded by people, but alone. As Marilyn Monroe, who also died far too young, noted, Talent is developed in privacy, but fame makes you an open target. Everybody is always tugging at you. They d all like a sort of chunk out of you. I don t think they realize it, but it s like grrr do this, grr do that , they d kind of like to take pieces out of you. But you do...
